

Air Pollution Control/Management for NPC Head Office

Governing Laws/Regulations for Air Pollution

- RA 8749 (Philippine Clean Air Act of 1999)
- DENR AO 2010-23 (Emission Standards for Vehicles)
- QC Ordinance No. NC-73 (No Smoking)
- MMDA Res. No. 10-15, S. 2010 (Anti-smoke Belching)
- CSC Memo Cir. No. 17, S. 2009 (No Smoking)

NPC Policies

Governing Air Pollution

- Corporate Environmental Policy - NPC Circular No. 91-32 dated July 19, 1991
- Corp. Social Responsibility and Env'l. Stewardship Program (CSRESP) -NP Board Res. Nos. 96-190 and 97-17
- Several Memoranda

Air Pollution Sources at the NPC Head Office

- Motor Vehicles (NPC and Private)
- Emergency Power Generators
- Burning of Garden Wastes

Management Approach

Plan

- setting objectives targets, policies, strategies, actions and allocating resources

Do

- implementing the Plan

Check - monitoring and evaluating results

Act

- improving performance through corrective and preventive actions

Corporate Objective for Air Pollution Control

- 100% compliance with all the applicable provisions of the Philippine Clean Air Act (PCAA) and with other Government Policies related to Air Pollution Control

Air Pollution Policy for Strict Implementation

All NPC Vehicles, including those assigned to Functional Groups shall undergo Emission Testing and comply with the Emission Standards set by the PCAA. Results of emission tests shall be submitted to the TFMD

Air Pollution Policy for Strict Implementation

Prohibition of “Smoke Belchers” inside the NPC Head Office Compound.

Air Pollution Policy for Strict Implementation

Prohibition of idling of parked vehicles inside the
NPC Head Office
Compound.

Air Pollution Policy

Prohibition of smoking inside the NPC Head Office Compound, except in the designated “Smoking Area”.

Air Pollution Policy for Strict Implementation

Prohibition of open burning inside the
NPC Head Office
Compound.

Air Pollution Policy

Use of Biofuel for NPC vehicles and emergency power generators to reduce emissions of air pollutants in accordance with DOE directive.

Authorities and Responsibilities

The TFMD, with the assistance of the Environmental Management Department (EMD) and the Corporate Pollution Control Officer (PCO), shall be responsible for the enforcement of air pollution control policies, monitoring implementation and evaluating corporate performance with air pollution control objectives/targets.

DO YOUR PART,
HELP US
COMPLY

